Children Come – Hearts Change – God Smiles

A Fantastic Fall Already

The Northside Iglesia de Cristo had their annual Corin Read fall retreat recently. Here are some thoughts from Fernando and a few photos from the weekend.

Corin Read has been a great blessing to the Northside Hispanic congregation and to our community. In this month of September, we had our congregational camp, we were edified under the theme of "The Deity of Christ." The children learned and had a lot of fun, the youth and the adults enjoyed a weekend away from ordinary life to spend time alone with God and with the brotherhood. We had an average attendance of 75 people; some stayed in the cabins and others who live nearby returned home at night. Thank you for making Corin read exist to be blessed and to bless others.

Last month, remember the pictures of the new cabin, especially of the high drywall work in the bathrooms? Thanks to Skip Traylor for his work; he even trimmed out the high windows. Last week, two of our Northside Hispanic brothers, Javier and Guillermo, painted all the sheet-rocked areas in the new cabin, and also painted the remaining ceilings in the Blakeney cabin. They did a great job and in only one day!

We still have trimming to complete in both cabin buildings, and some wood paneling to install in the newest cabin for it to be considered complete. In any case, this brings our bed count up to accommodate 116 campers/staff.

In addition, when the 6 RV pad sites near the front of the property are completed, we can accommodate 10 RVs.

God has blessed Corin Read Christian Camp through the planning, cooperation and support of so many. You are part of something great which aims to bring glory to God! Thank You!
